

Privacy Policy

Collection of Your Personal Information

Protecting your private information is our priority. We receive, collect, and store your personal identifiable information (name, email address and password). We may automatically collect your computer software and hardware information in addition to Internet protocol (IP) address, login, browser type, domains names, access times (, website addresses, and purchase history you enter on ASSET website. By using the ASSET website, you consent to the data practices described in this statement presently and in the future.

How Do We Collect Your Information?

We may use software tools to collect your personal and non-personal information when you conduct a transaction or visit ASSET website. As part of the process, we collect your personal and non-personal information only for the purpose stated above.

Use of Your Personal and Non-Personal Information

Your personal and non-personal information may be used to operate, deliver, and maintain the services you have requested, and provide the general statistics, regarding the use of the ASSET website. We may use your personal and non-personal data for the purpose to provide with customer and technical support, and comply with applicable laws, rules, and regulations.

Protect Your Personal Information

You must be aware that if you directly disclose your personal identifiable information or personally sensitive data through ASSET website, this information may be collected and used by other individuals or third parties. ASSET is not responsible for the use of your personal and non-personal data by other individuals or third party out the ASSET website. ASSET encourages to view the privacy statement and other content of each and every website you access through ASSET website.